

I pay for my XM satellite service voluntarily and I need news, weather, and traffic reports because I have a long daily commute by car everyday to get to work. I think it is wrong to restrict what services XM radio or any other satellite provider offers to their paying customers. Reject NAB's petition 04-160. And I vote too.